

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

Bi-451
3-31

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
BUREAU OF BIOLOGICAL SURVEY
Washington, D. C.

P-P
PR

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ APR 21 1931 ★
U. S. Department of Agriculture

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter in regard to a position as Government hunter and trapper:

Such positions are filled by the leaders in charge of the work in the several western States. The wages paid depend on the experience of the individual, who is required to furnish the necessary camp equipment and two horses, or an automobile instead of the horses. The pelts of all animals taken are Government property and are turned in to the leader in charge, who disposes of them in accordance with the regulations. It is suggested that you make application to one or more of the predatory-animal leaders who have charge of this work in the following States and Territory:

Alaska,	H. H. Gubser, Care Alaska Game Commission, Juneau
Arizona,	B. E. Foster, 134 S. Central Ave., Phoenix
California,	C. G. Poole, State Office Building, Sacramento
Colorado,	D. D. Green, 305 Custom House, Denver
Idaho,	L. J. Goldman, Box 59, Pocatello
Michigan,	H. P. Williams, State Conservation Office, Munising
Montana,	R. E. Bateman, Box 1251, Billings
Nevada,	E. R. Sans, 450 Gazette Bldg., Reno
New Mexico,	J. C. Gatlin, 208 French Bldg., Albuquerque
Oklahoma-Arkansas,	A. E. Gray, 514 Equity Bldg., Oklahoma City, Okla.
Oregon,	S. G. Jewett, 515 P. O. Bldg., Portland
South Dakota,	Louis Knowles, P. O. Bldg., Mitchell
Texas,	C. R. Landon, 904 Smith-Ycung Tower, San Antonio
Utah,	G. E. Holman, 204 Atlas Bldg., Salt Lake City
Washington,	L. K. Couch, State Capitol, Olympia
Wisconsin,	O. L. Coleman, 406 Pioneer Bldg., Madison, Wis.
Wyoming,	A. S. Hamm, P. O. Box 215, Cheyenne

In your application state fully your experience in hunting and trapping, your camp and trap equipment, and whether you can furnish horses or automobile. The leader in charge will inform you if additional men are needed and name the wages that will be paid.

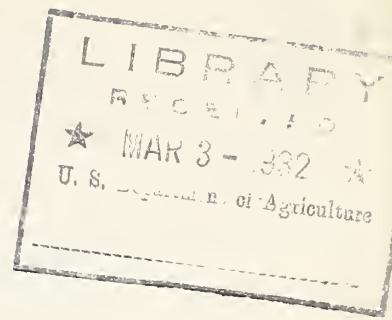

Very truly yours,

W. C. Henderson

W. C. Henderson,
Associate Chief.

United States Department of Agriculture
 Bureau of Biological Survey
 Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter in regard to a position as Government hunter and trapper:

Such positions are filled by the leaders in charge of the work in the several western States. The wages paid depend on the experience of the individual, who is required to furnish the necessary camp equipment and two horses, or an automobile instead of the horses. The pelts of all animals taken are Government property and are turned in to the leader in charge, who disposes of them in accordance with the regulations. It is suggested that you make application to one or more of the predatory-animal leaders who have charge of this work in the following States and Territory:

Alaska,	H. H. Gubser, Care Alaska Game Commission, Juneau
Arizona,	B. E. Foster, 134 South Central Ave., Phoenix
California,	C. G. Poole, State Office Building, Sacramento
Colorado,	D. D. Green, 345 Custom House, Denver
Idaho,	T. B. Murray, Box 1998, Boise
Michigan,	H. P. Williams, State Conservation Office, Munising
Montana,	R. E. Bateman, Box 1251, Billings
Nevada,	E. R. Sans, 450 Gazette Building, Reno
New Mexico,	J. C. Gatlin, 208 French Building, Albuquerque
Oklahoma-Arkansas,	A. E. Gray, 514 Equity Building, Oklahoma City, Okla.
Oregon,	S. G. Jewett, 515 Post Office Building, Portland
South Dakota,	Louis Knowles, Post Office Building, Mitchell
Texas,	C. R. Landon, 904 Smith-Young Tower, San Antonio
Utah,	G. E. Holman, 204 Atlas Building, Salt Lake City
Washington,	L. K. Couch, State Capitol, Olympia
Wyoming,	A. S. Hamm, Post Office Box 215, Cheyenne

In your application state fully your experience in hunting and trapping, your camp and trap equipment, and whether you can furnish horses or automobile. The leader in charge will inform you if additional men are needed and name the wages that will be paid.

Very truly yours,

W. C. Henderson

W. C. Henderson,
 Associate Chief.

